[redacted]

GENERAL REPORT

[redacted] associates little with his fellow pupils around the school. When [redacted] is actually in school he is generally polite and respectful towards staff, particularly female staff who he endeavours to charm.

[redacted] attempts to gain staff attention by using shock tactics e.g. "I am gay". [redacted] also attempts to engage staff in conversations about his "problems" as he puts it. [redacted]. It is my belief he has no more emotional and social problems than any other child in this school.
