Dear Sir,

I enclose a letter you sent to us recently, in which it was suggested by a Name Redacted that PIE had failed to answer a letter from him.

This is not in fact the case, and I enclose a carbon copy of the reply that I personally sent to Name Redacted. You will note that it is dated 3 December, and that his letter of complaint reached you, according to your date stamp, on 4 December. In other words, he probably penned his complaint on the same day that I sent my reply!

This is a point I wish to clear up, as I would not want PIE to get an undeserved reputation for failing to deal with correspondence.

Yours faithfully,

DPA
