

Diocese of Monmouth

Confidential safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults agreement between Ian Galt and the Church in Wales

The Church in Wales guidelines on safeguarding, make provision for those who might pose a risk to children, young people and vulnerable adults, to participate in certain acts of worship provided they do so in the context of a written agreement which ensures the best possible protection of children, young people and vulnerable adults. This agreement, which comes into immediate effect, is in line with those guidelines.

The reason for this agreement is that following conviction for serious offences against children there are concerns about his contact with children and young people.

The purposes of the agreement are to:

- take into account the seriousness of the offences against Ian Galt
- agree the terms of his attendance at church

The Agreement:

- I agree that I will only attend on advertised services. If I wish to attend any other church I must inform, the Revd. Susan Collingbourne so that a written agreement can be made with that church. This agreement is not transferable.
- I agree that I will not seek out, or accept, any role within the church or elsewhere associated with children, young people or vulnerable adults.
- I agree that I will never allow myself to be in a situation where I am alone with children or young people on church premises or in a church setting.
- I agree that I will not initiate contact with children or young people by any means (e.g. internet, phone or mobile).
- I agree that I will avoid certain meetings or events if so directed by the Incumbent..
- I agree that in church I will not place myself in the immediate vicinity of children or young people