There is no representation from the victim (me) or from Mr Devamanikkam.

I asked Moira Murray what would happen if I did not participate in the ‘review’ and was told they would do it without me from their own notes. I was also told that the NST would appoint a reviewer, the core group would set the remit and the review would apportion no blame to anyone. This was sent to me on email. More recently I have pointed out these people have conflicts of interest to Tony from the NST and was told
