

(4): The healing of those who have been abused is of paramount importance. As an initial step on this path both Bishop John Arnold and Abbot Richard Yeo are ready to meet those who have been abused.

(5): The Apostolic Visitation should now be closed.

I enclose the following appendices to this report.

(1): E-mails and letters received from members of the parish of St Benedict's Ealing, and from parents and former pupils of St Benedict's School, Ealing;

(2): A copy of the Carlile Report;

(3): A copy of the press release issued by Catholic Communications Network at the request of Bishop John Arnold after the publication of the Carlile Report;

(4): A copy of the statement issued by the Abbot of Ealing after the publication of the Carlile Report;

(5): A copy of the letter of the Chair of the Education Commission of the Archdiocese of Westminster to Lord Carlile;

(6): The formal submission of the Abbot President of the English Benedictine Congregation;

(7): A letter sent by the Apostolic Visitors to the Abbot of Ealing;

(8): A statement drawn up by the Apostolic Visitors which they would like to make available to the press, if the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith agrees.
