A

(The jury returned to court at 12.23)

THE CLERK OF THE COURT: Would the defendant please stand.

Would the foreman please stand.

B

Mr Foreman, please confine yourself to answering my first question simply yes or not.

Has the jury reached a verdict upon which you are all agreed?

C

THE FOREMAN OF THE JURY: Yes.

THE CLERK OF THE COURT: Do you find this defendant guilty or not guilty?

D

THE FOREMAN OF THE JURY: Not guilty.

THE CLERK OF THE COURT: Not guilty. And is that the verdict of you all?

E

THE FOREMAN OF THE JURY: It is.

THE CLERK OF THE COURT: Thank you. Sit down, please.

JUDGE MCDOWALL: Obviously RC-F41 is discharged, he is not in the dock and so it is not a problem there. Are there any consequential applications, Miss Levitt?

F

MISS LEVITT: There will be one in relation to a defence costs order for travel to his solicitors' offices. Would your Honour give me a moment? Apparently they are not being sought. So I have no further application, thank you, your Honour.
