I spoke to [RC-A418] at CPT XD offices on 7/11/01. He stated that he attended Ealing Abbey School from 1981-97. When he was 8-9 years old he went to school swimming lessons at [DPA] on two occasions, both solely supervised by Fr David. After swimming, before the boys got dressed, Fr David would check if the boys were dry by feeling their bodies, their back, buttocks and genital areas and would tell off boys who got dressed prior to him checking. If a boy lost a locker key Fr David would put his hands down the boys swimming trunks on the pretext of checking if the key was there.

[RC-A418] had only been swimming on the two occasions after he told his mother he didn't like it and she wrote a note to the school.

[RC-A418] stated that a friend of his went on a school trip supervised by Fr David. When the showers didn't work Fr David fixed the shower but insisted that he watched one of the boys having a shower. The same incident occurred the following evening. Fr David would also make boys get undressed in front of him if they were attempting to get dressed under cover. There was also a rumour that Fr David had taken a video camera to the swimming lessons. When having a tea party for prefects in his office, Fr David would not have sufficient chairs and would have one of the boys sit on his lap. Fr David was
