Dear Nicola

We are grateful for the notes provided by the Solicitor to the Inquiry and Counsel to the Inquiry dated 30 August and 2 September respectively. On the basis of the information they contain, the Home Office agrees that further significant decisions as to the conduct of this investigation should await the decision of the CPS on whether to prosecute. In the meantime, we agree that the course proposed by CTI at paragraph 44 of their note is appropriate. The Home Office will be represented at the preliminary hearing on 24 September and may make further submissions at that time in light of any further submissions or information then available.

Kind regards

Daniel

Subject: Investigation into institutional responses to allegations of child sexual abuse involving the late Lord Janner of Braunstone QC: Preliminary Hearing 24 September 2019

Dear All,

I write regarding the above noted investigation. Please find attached:

- I. Submissions by Counsel to the Inquiry;
- II. A note prepared by the Solicitor to the Inquiry;
- III. Submissions on behalf of the IOPC;
- IV. A draft agenda for the preliminary hearing; and
- V. The Inquiry's Investigation Support Leaflet.

Core Participants are invited to file submissions in response to Counsel to the Inquiry's submissions by no later than 4pm on Monday 16 September 2019. Any submissions should be provided to the Inquiry in unredacted form.

The Inquiry will apply any redactions that are necessary in accordance with version 3 of its Redaction Protocol (available here), then circulate the submissions to core participants before the preliminary hearing.

If Core Participants wish to suggest any other matters to be discussed at the preliminary hearing, they are invited to do so in writing together with reasons by no later than 4pm on Monday 16 September 2019.

The usual support arrangements will be in place for core participants to the investigation and those attending the preliminary hearing. I enclose with this email the leaflet which explains how to access this support either in advance or on the day of the hearing.

The information contained within this email and documentation attached to it are provided expressly subject to the Confidentiality Undertaking.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if there are any queries arising out of the above or attached.

Kind Regards,

Nicola
