

	Found proven	Summary of allegations	Passed to police/social services	Internal disciplinary action? Action taken?
	No	That a volunteer tour leader, aged 21, started a relationship with a participant, aged 16, shortly after the tour had finished. The volunteer tour leader had offered welfare support as well as leadership during the tour.	Yes, LADO and Police. The police informed us that no action could be taken but that a note would be added to the file for future DBS checks. Charity Commission informed via serious incident report.	Investigation by Director of Youth with support from Chief Executive. Volunteer banned from any activity within LJY-Netzer.
	Yes	Peer on peer abuse on an event which involved inappropriate sexual touching	No, threshold not reached	Investigation by Director of Youth and Operations Director. Caution given
	No	Peer on peer abuse outside of Liberal Judaism but involving two volunteer leaders. Non-consensual sexual activity.	Yes, to the police.	Investigation by Director of Youth and Operations Director. Caution given
	Yes	Peer on peer abuse on an event which involved inappropriate sexual touching	No, threshold not reached	Panel discussion involving all parties delivering event. Participant sent home.
	No	Sexual abuse by a rabbi at a summer camp over 20 years ago.	Yes, to the police.	Anonymous report, discussion with accused rabbi but no further action possible.

In all cases above, pastoral support was offered with rabbinic support and the support of specialist external services for both victims of assault and the in the case of peer on peer abuse, the alleged perpetrators. Agencies used included Jewish Women's Aid and the Samaritans.

There are no current investigations underway or allegations that have not been addressed.