

the panel makes a decision". This is an extremely small and biased panel considering the serious concerns. Who else should have been on this panel? Independent person?

- Two sets of handwritten notes on disciplinary hearing – panel's decision held on 9th July, 1986. Decision that JC should be given a final written warning. Any further commission of a similar disciplinary of a criminal offence will lead to proceedings for your dismissal. Notes taker was Paul Lawrence.
- Letter dated 27th August, 1986 to John Carroll outlining the conclusions of the disciplinary hearing from Wynford Jones.
- Copy of JC's appeal against dismissal, dated 22nd July, 1991
- Letter to JC from Neil Mercer (Lambeth, Senior Personnel Officer) dated 29/1/91 asking JC to attend a meeting with Angell Road for 4/2/91 in connection with inquiries.
- Copy of recorded interview – interviewees were; David Hine, Teresa Johnston, J Jintioa, and C Tull. Interview took place at MSH on 4/2/91
- Hand written Meeting notes 9th July, 1986.
- Letter from David Pope to Ainsley Forbes informing him that an independent review will commence in a few days, 16th February, 1993. Is this the Clough Report? Or something else?
- Newspaper article "Top level inquiry into kid's homes" 29/1/93 – South London Press.
- Letter to Mr D Clough from David Pope regarding independent investigation. David Pope has outlined the terms of reference that should be used. States that should Mr Clough require any additional help that he should ask Ainsley Forbes.
- Various correspondence between Lambeth and Wandsworth relating to the independent inquiry led by Dick Clough as well as the disciplinary of JC.

Ref. 016: Letter dated 03/11/92 to Jack Smith from the Director of Social Services regarding JC's application to foster. Asks a series of questions, including provision of reference for application. Attached are the answers provided by Jack Smith, including a statement that he did provide a reference. Attached is also a letter from Wandsworth dated 26th November, 1992, Mike Rundle (Director of Social Services) to David Pope. Sent an extract from the file of the original application to foster following a telephone conversation to help with investigations. Clough?? Notes are attached from social workers file which implicate that she had knowledge of offence and detail her concerns about Mr and Mrs C. Names mentioned in these notes are Brenda Jones (Principal