1. On 29 February 2016, A33 (now known as JA-A24) was designated as a core participant in the investigation into institutional responses to allegations of child sexual abuse involving the late Lord Janner of Braunstone Q.C.. At the same time, Liz Dux of Slater and Gordon was also designated as JA-A24's recognised legal representative in accordance with Rule 6(1) of the Inquiry Rules 2006.
2. On 27 September 2020 the Inquiry was informed that JA-A24 wished to be represented by David Enright of Howe and Co solicitors.
3. Accordingly, as I am satisfied that JA-A24 has now appointed David Enright of Howe and Co solicitors as his legal representative, I designate David Enright as his recognised legal representative in the above investigation in accordance with Rule 6(1) of the Inquiry Rules 2006 as I am required by that rule to do.
