

6 Conclusion and Relationships between the Local Authority and the NSPCC

I would like to take this opportunity of placing on record my appreciation of the very significant contribution which the NSPCC has made to the development of effective, multi-disciplinary, child protection services in Rochdale during the last ten years and I ask that Committee endorse these sentiments.

G Littlemore
Director of Social Services
ALB/DJ
2 November 1990

9812