Truth Project Engagement

The Inquiry's Truth Project focused on providing the opportunity for victims and survivors of child sexual abuse to share their experiences of abuse. It came to a close in October 2021 so that accounts shared could help to inform the Inquiry's Final Report. Here are the final figures for the Truth Project.

Figures since launch:

Getting in touch with the Inquiry

People get in touch with the Inquiry for a variety of reasons; for example, to ask questions, provide information to the investigations or express an interest in taking part in the Truth Project. These charts show the amount of correspondence received by the Inquiry each month by method of communication.

Research & Seminars

The Research team brings together, in one place, what is already known about child sexual abuse and finds the gaps in our knowledge. The team supports the Inquiry to ask the right questions of the Institutions it is investigating. It also carries out new research and is responsible for analysing the information the Inquiry receives through the Truth Project.

1 Ongoing research projects

24 Research reports published

The research reports include Rapid Evidence Assessments (REAs) to establish what is already known and primary research reports to fill specific knowledge gaps.
