

Inquiries Act 2005
Restriction Order Pursuant to Section 19

Cambridge House, Knowl View and Rochdale Investigation

Background

1. During the Public Hearing in the Cambridge House, Knowl View and Rochdale investigation on 18 October 2017, Ian Davey gave evidence. During the course of his evidence reference was made to the first name of an individual who is referred to by the Inquiry as RO-A15.
2. The Chair of the Inquiry made an oral order during the hearing that the name of the individual who is referred to by the Inquiry as RO-A15 is to be subject to a restriction order prohibiting the publication of these details. This is the written form of that order.

Restriction Order

3. This Restriction Order is made under section 19(1) of the Inquiries Act 2005 (“the Act”) and binds all members of the public, including Core Participants.
4. This Restriction Order prohibits the disclosure or publication of:
 - a. The name of the individual who is referred to by the Inquiry as RO-A15.For the avoidance of doubt, publication includes publishing information on any website, blog, Twitter or other social media.
5. In the case of public authorities, the restrictions specified in this Order take effect subject to the terms of section 20(6) of the Inquiries Act 2005.
6. Pursuant to section 20(4) of the Inquiries Act 2005 the Chair may vary or revoke this Restriction Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.

7. Any person affected by this Order may apply in accordance with section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005 to vary its terms.

8. This Restriction Order continues in force indefinitely, or unless the order is varied or revoked pursuant to section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005.
