

Full story

As far back as 1981 and Matt Ingoe a Governor can remember incidents when Mr Taylor was Head.

The circumstances surrounding the school were not one isolated incident, it was a culture and the 'Hilton' incident was symptomatic of that culture.

We can all look for someone to blame but it was a collective responsibility, maybe through ignorance. Staff should have been aware of what was going on.

Summer 90 Incidents of sexual experimentation came to light in Ashworth and Norden.

Ashworth;

RO-A10
RO-A24
RO-A12
RO-A18
RO-A13
RO-A89

to a lesser extent;

RO-B18
RO-B17
RO-A27

Norden;

RO-A11
RO-A14
RO-A15
RO-A16

RO-A17

to a lesser extent;

RO-A20
RO-A18

The details of there involvement I will give verbally.

Mistakes made ; This is probably the first time all the information has been available to all staff.

WHY?

Staff were not on site when they should have been sleeping in, not on site when they should have been on senior cover,

NO information given to the staff

No collation of information

No dissemination of information.