Dear Sir,

Re Prowler

Last night, Monday 13th May, we had someone on the school grounds attempting to get into the school. We have on previous occasions had an intruder in the school who sexually abused one of the children, consequently the staff are very sensitive to anyone in the vicinity attempting to get into school.

The police were called after this person was spotted at approximately 12.15 a.m. but did not arrive until 1.05 a.m., this after a second phone call. I am rather worried about the length of time it took to respond to this call bearing in mind previous events.

The two policemen that did eventually arrive were very helpful and supportive. I am sure you share my concern especially with this client group being so vulnerable.

Yours sincerely,,

S. BRADSHAW B.A.
