

staff than me.

There was an acceptance that some boys had been involved in cartaging plus a youth (locally) who tempted the boys into the woods with cigarettes for fags.

I'm not convinced it was general knowledge and that an intruder had been in.

I'm not convinced everyone understood the implications.

A new Security ^{System} was requested but also a new ^{type} of behaviour modification was addressed to change views on what ^{the} know view was about.

The acting head prior to my arrival (my deputy) didn't want to communicate with me. I had to face the issue and not on his terms. He was bitter about my taking the post and that he would be made a scape goat.

The whole incident was deliberately not pursued because my brief was to run a tighter ship. If there were hearsay I would put it on one side. I was not conducting an enquiry.

I did feel there was a dilemma with the deputy - one of disaffection
