

I had strong views on practices of sleeping in. This was hidden from me. There was also his telephone business of a mobile. I had strong views on this and spoke to Brett about it. I don't know whether he instigated. I can't prove it but I think Brett went away from school as far as Sheffield on occasions. His marriage broke up and he was demoralized. He camped out in the deputy's house. He had strong arguments but ran out of steam.

I have no reason to believe that Staff had any sexual activities with the boys. I felt there was hang-up and a blind eye may have been turned.

I pondered on it but dismissed it. I was concerned about 1 female <sup>who left</sup> + another female member. I had no professional concerns.

A. There were sexual activities between male members and a female member plus possibility of blossoming affairs. This doesn't help morals. I think that young boys are canny
