My involvement - I was aware from when I first came here (I'm a social worker by profession) was that there was no recognition of about 22 / 25 children had been physically or sexually abused. ~~before~~ they came to school. One of the spin-offs - I became aware of Red Hutter who in the past (over a number of years) had been misleading himself by involving pupils into community and it is amounted to sexual abuse.

The description of R. H. was that he was an alcoholic and difficult but nothing had been done about him. It is a feeling I slept in on the Wednesday night with Jane Le Clerc. One day earlier in the week I saw a note in the communications book said Red Hutter is about in the area.

All the incidents were fully recorded - I was going round the building before sleep-in shift and I saw as I came round Narden house went
