

showed evidence of very disturbed behavior. This went on for a number of weeks.

RO-A14 was excluded for a fairly serious assault on another child. All of this should be recorded. It was one part - following this when it could not be established whether R. H. was in relation to RO-A14 or RO-A16. I spoke to Rod's Probation officer who reassured that he would be going to another establishment but this didn't happen - he still stayed around.

He was aware that B. A. criticised ~~did~~ for not telling staff. This informant was all recorded and kept but not made public.

People were suspicious but it had been dealt with by B. A. S. C. D. E and myself satisfactorily.

I was concerned that nothing had been done to stop R. H. It would seem that people were perhaps frightened of terminations. It also seemed
