

possibly both and robbery at the [DPA].
Adjourned to 25.1.93 Rochdale Court. Bail conditions imposed. No contact between [RO-A10] and [RO-A9] [RO-A10] is to reside at [DPA] [DPA] and he is to abide by a 9.00 p.m. - 7.00 a.m. curfew. In indicated that I would not be at court on Monday to [Mother] Solicitor assured me that matters would again be adjourned on that day. Solicitor will be writing to the Education Dept threatening legal action unless they organise education for [RO-A10], [RO-A10] reasonably well behaved today. Agreed to meet [Mother] at her new home [DPA] tomorrow (let from St Vincents Housing Association).

20.1.93

Visited [Mother] at [DPA] today. No one was there when I visited.

Referral meeting about [RO-A10]. They suggest that we have another referral meeting and get together following [RO-A10]'s court appearance on 16 Feb. They suggest that a Supervision Order with IT may be a reasonable recommendation if the matter is dealt with without going to adult court and if it is before [RO-A10]'s 15th birthday. Otherwise, given the seriousness of the offences [RO-A10] may be due to possibly 1 year's custody? Probation may monitor the Supervision Order.

Telephone call to Knowle View - Steve Bradshaw. He arrived in April 1991. ? Smith St toilets.
masturb\ masturbation possibly, nothing proven. Not corroborated.
Hearsay from staff. No clear guidelines for staff. School were at fault re recording policies. Poor level of supervision. Got into labelling. Wanted to get rid of [RO-A10] and things would get better.
But [RO-A10] was in a sense scapegoated by the staff. School had fear of failing at the time and really should have kept social workers informed about these concerns. However he was clear that there were no clear grounds to suggest that [RO-A10] was involved in any abuse of other pupils at Knowle View.

Telephoned Sue Jamieson. Brought he up to date with the above.
Also arranged to see [RO-A10] on Tuesday 28 January at 10.00 to discuss educational placements.

5.2.93

[DPA] to arrange to visit. No one

TC 710123 Only term time not a 52 week placement, and no plans to make it so.

TC Sue Jamieson to let her know the above.
