

Preliminary Hearing on the Inquiry's investigation into allegations of child sexual abuse involving the late Lord Janner of Braunstone QC and the institutional responses to those allegations

Date: Tuesday 26 July 2016
Start time: 10.30 am
Finish: Expected by 4.00 pm
Location: Court 73, Royal Courts of Justice (RCJ), London, WC2A 2LL
(Entry via the Bell Yard North entrance - opens 9.30 am)

Hon. Dame Lowell Goddard, Chair of the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse, will hold a Preliminary Hearing on 26 July 2016. Counsel to the Inquiry will provide an update on matters of general application to all of the Inquiry's investigations. The Chair of the Inquiry will then hear submissions in relation to the Inquiry's investigation into allegations of child sexual abuse involving the late Lord Janner of Braunstone QC and the institutional responses to those allegations.

General matters:

- a. Update on (i) the Research Project and (ii) the Truth Project;
- b. Draft restriction order granting anonymity to complainant Core Participants;
- c. Ruling on broadcasting proceedings in the Lord Janner, Anglican, Rochdale and Lambeth investigations;
- d. Guidance on the redaction and ciphering of documents.

Lord Janner investigation:

- e. the timing of the hearings;
- f. the proposed structure of the oral hearings;
- g. an update on the investigation;
- h. a procedural update, including on Core Participant applications.

For information on attending a preliminary hearing, please read the information page on attending a hearing.