LETTER H 84

DPA

1st January 1994

000493

Dear George.

You and Eileen have been so, so much in my thoughts and prayers and thank you for showing such courage but all in going to the fuder and saying and doing such brave things. We need that inspiration so much in our time. Oh Lord, and we have certainly had it.

I feel very, very diffident about writing this letter, especially when I saw on the television the scene of awful starvation in the fuder. But the trouble is that we (I) had made our calculations for bills etc on what you had so wonderfully and generously said both in September, when I was with you, and also in October, when the last little nuisance (lived up): that is that you would send five thousand pounds at Christmas and next March to help with the legal expenses. It is so, so awful to have to write, and if your discretionary (and wont run with it, I shall under-
