— Have you considered whether it might be wise to have someone with you for at least part of the time you spend with the Ball brothers on April 7th?

— If you have to think about discipline (the Cartin list, for example) perhaps Frank Robson should be asked if he can come to Canterbury, and/or Harold Gordon (which might be difficult in Holy Week, but we could find out).

— However, now that he has retired, as well as resigned (has Peter really come to terms with that?) the Cartin list may not be appropriate. An alternative might be a letter from you to Peter laying down certain stipulations about his activities in future, so that you may be seen
