

Inquiries Act 2005
Restriction Order Pursuant to Section 19

Nottinghamshire Councils investigation

Background

1. During the course of F37's evidence to the Inquiry on 3 October 2018, the witness referred to the following information which may lead to her identification:
 - a. The name of her alleged abuser;
 - b. The name of her sister;
 - c. Her own name;
 - d. Specific street names.
2. The Chair of the Inquiry made an oral a Restriction Order prohibiting the disclosure or publishing of this information said by the witness.
3. This is the written form of that order.

Restriction Order

4. This Restriction Order is made under section 19(1) of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act") and binds all members of the public, including Core Participants.
5. This Restriction Order prohibits the disclosure or publication or sharing the following information said by the witness:
 - a. The name of her alleged abuser;
 - b. The name of her sister;
 - c. Her own name;
 - d. Specific street names.
6. For the avoidance of doubt, publication includes publishing information on any website, blog, Twitter or other social media.
7. In the case of public authorities, the restrictions specified in this Order take effect subject to the terms of section 20(6) of the Inquiries Act 2005.
8. Pursuant to section 20(4) of the Inquiries Act 2005 the Chair may vary or revoke this Restriction Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.

9. Any person affected by this Order may apply in accordance with section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005 to vary its terms.

10. This Restriction Order continues in force indefinitely, or unless the order is varied or revoked pursuant to section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005.
