Dear Ms Mitchell,

MR Seminar 27.09.18

In the MR seminar transcript at Page 39 I am recorded as saying:

11 faced with losing your job and, if you are a member at 12 a private school and you're a member of the ISA, the
13 Independent Schools Association, well, good luck on you,
14 because the likelihood of you getting another job in 15 an independent school, if you blow the whistle, because 16 that's what you are at the moment, with all the 17 protection of the Public Interest Disclosure Act –

(my italics)

There are many associations in the independent schools sector and by accident I highlighted one rather than providing generic narrative in the following way:

...if you are a member at a private school and a member of an independent schools association, well, good luck on you, because the likelihood of you getting another...

Please use this letter as you wish.

Yours faithfully
