

Inquiries Act 2005
Restriction Order Pursuant to Section 19

Nottinghamshire Councils investigation

Background

1. During the course of Daniel Yates' evidence to the Inquiry on 19 October 2018 reference was made to the name of a residential home that may lead to the identification of complainants of child sexual abuse whose identity has been redacted by the Inquiry in accordance with the Inquiry's Redaction Protocol.
2. The Chair of the Inquiry made an oral Restriction Order prohibiting the disclosure or publishing of the name of the residential home referred to in the course of the witness' evidence.
3. This is the written form of that order.

Restriction Order

4. This Restriction Order is made under section 19(1) of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act") and binds all members of the public, including Core Participants.
5. This Restriction Order prohibits the disclosure or publication or sharing of the name of the residential home referred to in connection with the Inquiry or this witness's evidence. For the avoidance of doubt, publication includes publishing information on any website, blog, Twitter or other social media.
6. In the case of public authorities, the restrictions specified in this Order take effect subject to the terms of section 20(6) of the Inquiries Act 2005.
7. Pursuant to section 20(4) of the Inquiries Act 2005 the Chair may vary or revoke this Restriction Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.
8. Any person affected by this Order may apply in accordance with section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005 to vary its terms.
9. This Restriction Order continues in force indefinitely, or unless the order is varied or revoked pursuant to section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005.
