

Inquiries Act 2005
Restriction Order Pursuant to Section 19

Accountability & Reparations Investigation

Background

1. During Day 8 of the Accountability & Reparations investigation hearing on 5 December 2018 AR-A36 gave live evidence about the abuse he suffered while at St Aidan's Children's Home. During his evidence AR-A36 referred to himself by name.
2. The Chair of the Inquiry made oral orders during the hearing prohibiting the disclosure or publication of AR-A36's name
3. This is the written form of those orders.

Restriction Order

4. This Restriction Order is made under section 19(1) of the Inquiries Act 2005 ("the Act") and binds all members of the public, including Core Participants.
5. This Restriction Order prohibits the disclosure or publication of the name referred to at paragraph 2 above.
6. For the avoidance of doubt, publication includes publishing information on any website, blog, Twitter or other social media.
7. In the case of public authorities, the restrictions specified in this Order take effect subject to the terms of section 20(6) of the Inquiries Act 2005.
8. Pursuant to section 20(4) of the Inquiries Act 2005 the Chair may vary or revoke this Restriction Order by making a further order during the course of the Inquiry.

9. Any person affected by this Order may apply in accordance with section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005 to vary its terms.

10. This Restriction Order continues in force indefinitely, or unless the order is varied or revoked pursuant to section 20 of the Inquiries Act 2005.
