Dear George, It was immensely kind of you to see us yesterday, and the whole expedition was rather fun. It has been an agonising few months but it did Peter's heart, mind and soul, more good than I can say to know that you still have faith in him and wish him to minister again in some way in the future.

He was silly, but behind it was a very ugly 'campaign' to destroy him, and others with him if they could. Part of it was the trick, but I felt and partly know there was something more sinister even than that. I, therefore, fear there is still something going on somewhere.

Eventually in some months time. I hope Peter might be able to help in this disease too, and in the world in which we live.

to be free of lots of prayer for your wonderful and joyful unity.

With love to Peter and

you.
