Dear Sir,

re: Alexander Victor Edward Paulet MONTAGU

I have considered the report sent with your letter dated 24th November, 1972, and in my opinion this case can properly be dealt with by way of a caution.

The assaults, which are admitted, are not of themselves very serious, and if Mr. Montagu is prepared to take the excellent advice given to him by Det. Chief Inspector Newman and avoid any contact with the boy in the future I do not think that proceedings are called for.

Yours faithfully,
