Dear Robert,

I wrote to you on 4 November about the stories about Peter MORRISON. We now hear that the press are following MORRISON about, and camping on his doorstep, in the hope of obtaining some comment from him on the allegations of some years ago.

2. MORRISON has said privately that he hopes the press will publish something, so that he can sue, and nail the stories. He also says that both Mr Tebbit (who told him of the allegations when they first appeared) and the Prime Minister are aware of the matter.

3. In the circumstances, there would seem to be little point in carrying this further.

Yours ever,

Tony
