Hello Chris,

Here's that email. Contacting the Daily Mail is what she said she would do. And one thing I remembered incorrectly - it says 'arrest record' not 'conviction'.

Best wishes

I tell you now, you put Name Redacted forward as the M.P. Candidate for DPA or any other position of power representing the Green Party, I will have no hesitation in contacting the Daily Mail to tell them about his history of underage sex with girls he taught. He was sacked as a teacher for inappropriate relations with a student and not meeting the standards required as a teacher. His head teacher, Name Redacted went as far as adding to his file that it was inappropriate he work with children again. This man has an arrest record for underage sex with young girls.

I've just finished 3 months of rape counselling to get over what he did to me when I was 15. I plan to find the other girls I know of and encourage them to come forward. Name Redacted is a serial paedophile. I do not make these allegations out of spite or malice or even because you might think I am off my head!! I am a qualified teacher and married mother of 3 children. It is my part of my job to raise safeguarding concerns and have them listened to.

It is downright criminal he is allowed to visit constituents in their homes where he has access to young girls.

He can ban me from posting on his FB page all he likes, but I will not be silenced over this.

The police might not have been able to have charged him even though I have his FB confession and apology for what he did to me all those years ago, but I will not stay silent over this. He cannot stand as an MP. It's morally wrong and I intend to seek justice in the civil courts for what he did to me.

The Green Party are complicit, you already know about the allegations, which is why he was discreetly de-selected as deputy leader.

You won't respond, but I don't mind, the fact this is this email leaves a digital footprint will prove you were made aware. If you choose to do nothing, so be it. I will still oppose his selection.
